SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR ADVENT 2017

Note: The Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary will be broadcast on the Sundays of Advent (beginning December 3rd), and every day through the Christmas octave, concluding on January 1st, 2018.

CHRIST COMES IN HISTORY, MYSTERY AND MAJESTY: REFLECTIONS ON ADVENT WITH HIS EMINENCE, TIMOTHY CARDINAL DOLAN

These Advent Reflections were recorded especially for EWTN in Cardinal Dolan's private chapel.

Week One - Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York reflects on the coming of the Messiah and how the Church during Advent, in a small way, consolidates those waiting for centuries into four short weeks.

Week Two - Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York reflects on the mystery of Christ and how he comes to be reborn in us every day, despite the world's failure to recognize Him.

Week Three - Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York reflects on the majesty of Christ, his return as the Omnipotent Judge, and how we should look at our actions "under the aspect of eternity" during Advent.

Week Four - Cardinal Timothy Dolan reflects on how Christ comes through the saints, from the proclamation of the kingdom, to the call of repentance and conversion of heart.

AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE RADIO THEATRE: “Ode to St. Cecilia”

PART TWO: The Chord Is Struck

Cecilia’s vow to Christ is threatened by pressure from her parents to marry the Roman Senator Valerian. Prefect Almachius pushes Maximus to intensify his search for the Christians.

PART THREE: Tragically Poetic

Valerian and Tibertius go on a quest to confirm Cecilia’s claims. Maximus is in conflict between his friends and the demands of Almachius.

PART FOUR: A Great Mystery

The persecution of the Christians takes a tragic turn as Almachius fulfills his threats.

PART FIVE: Arise

Almachius puts a life-or-death choice to Cecilia and her friends – and Maximus has to decide where to place his loyalties.
